

MORE

How to SPEED READ Piano Chord Symbols

Book II

Written by Nathan Andersen - Copyright 2005

MORE HOW TO SPEED READ PIANO CHORD SYMBOLS

Index of Chapters

---

CHAPTER 1

Finding Chords with 5th Page 1
The Right Hand Starting Position
Additional Practice on Basic Chord

---

CHAPTER 2

9th Chords Page 27
How to Find the 9th
How The 9th relates to the 5th
The circle of 5ths

---

CHAPTER 3

13th Chords Page 36
How to find the 13th
How 13ths relate to 9ths, 5ths and the circle of 5ths

---

CHAPTER 4

Augmented Chords Page 43
How to Find Augmented Chords
The Sharp 5th chord
How the Sharp 5th Chord wants to move to the 3rd of the next chord in the circle of 5ths

---

CHAPTER 5

Suspensions Page 48
Suspensions that are written in
Suspensions that implied by the melody

---

CHAPTER 6

Working Through a Song Page 54
Working through "You Made Me Love You".
Suggestions for different voicings and tricks.

---

CHAPTER 7

Right Hand Inversions Page 66
Adding More flavors to your pallet of chords
Slash chords and inversions
Adding more notes to your Dim7 chords
Working through "Hark the Harald Angels Sing"

---

CHAPTER 8

The Left Hand Page 79
Putting some of the notes in the left hand
Rootless Left Hand Voicings
Adding the 5th in the left hand

---

CHAPTER 9

Adding Bass Lines Page 86
Walking Bass Lines
Choosing bass notes based on chords

---

CHAPTER 10

Stride Piano Page 104
How to Play Stride Piano

Chapter 1: Right Hand Starting Position with 5th

If you remember from the first book, you can find both the third and fifth of a chord from the root by using fourths.

The fifth of the chord is down a fourth from the root.

